

Part IV

Chapter 36

Misconceptions About Catholic Practices

There are many misconceptions held by non-Catholics about Catholic practices with regard to worship, devotions and private prayer.

In prison, Catholic inmates are troubled by the misunderstanding of the way they practice their Catholic faith by non-Catholic cellmates, and other inmates.

Hopefully, we can overcome some of those misunderstandings, and stop some of the Catholic bashing, and prejudice in the prisons with some simple explanations of Catholic beliefs and practices, which are widely misunderstood.

